PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate the violation(s) contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court on 4/26/2024.

On October 12, 2023, a United States probation officer reviewed a copy of the conditions of supervision with Mr. Pearson as outlined in the judgment and sentence. Mr. Pearson signed his judgment acknowledging an understanding of those conditions.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance10 Mandatory Condition # 1: You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Pearson allegedly violated the above-stated condition on August 9, 2024. On that date, Mr. Pearson eluded Lewiston Police Department (LPD), pursuant to LPD case number 24-L11769.

Probable cause existed for charging Mr. Pearson with felony eluding. On September 11, 2024, Mr. Pearson was charged with felony eluding. At the time of this petition, the charges remain pending.

11 Standard Condition # 3: You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Pearson allegedly violated the above-stated condition on August 9, 2024. On that date, Lewiston Police Department (LPD) attempted a traffic stop with Mr. Pearson. According to LPD case number 24-L11769, Mr. Pearson eluded police officers through Lewiston, Idaho. Mr. Pearson did not have permission to leave the Eastern District of Washington by the Court or probation officer.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court to incorporate the violation(s) contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
